My grateful thanks go to Anthony and the Church Family for your compassionate, thoughtful, kindness following Grant's passing away. I have been overwhelmed by your loving prayers, letters and cards. Grant was loved and you have all extended that love to myself, Chris and Sebastian - may God richly bless you all. Yvonne x

Light Party Monday 31st October 4-6pm. For 4-11 year olds as an alternative to Halloween.

Christmas Fair - 19th November 10am to 1pm supporting Blueskies and Headway Blackpool, two amazing local charities. In particular, this year we would love home-made produce of cakes and jams/ pickles etc. which would make great Christmas gifts, children's books and toys etc. and pledges for the auction. We already have some fabulous pledges offered i.e. an afternoon for 4 designing costume Jewellery which you can keep followed by tea and cake thanks Jacqui Green 07530 358724.

Gift Day We are so blessed and grateful for the generosity displayed by church members as a response to our recent gift day. As well as extending a sincere thank you to all who gave, we are going to set time aside to Thank God for His provision of funds and commit to Him our use of the money. Church will be open for quiet prayer from 10am - 8pm on Monday 7th November and you are welcome to call in at any point during that time to pray. Also, there will be a very short service of prayer and thanksgiving at 8pm. Please do join us if you can.

Service of Remembrance Sunday 13th November at 10.30 am with Holy Communion.

ALL WELCOME AS WE REMEMBER THOSE WE HAVE LOST.

Samaritans purse shoe box appeal There will be boxes, leaflets and items to take to put in the boxes available on Sunday 30th October. There has been a hold up with the boxes this year so the appeal is running late. Please will you return completed boxes by Sunday 13th November at the latest. The shoe box gifts are a blessing to children around the world who are in need and these are often the only gifts they receive. Thank you for helping again this year. More information from Michele Duer or Pam Varley.
